

News

Dancesport - Malta couple do well abroad

26/04/2007

*Malta
DanceSport
Association*

April 2007: Maltese DanceSport couples do well abroad

Recently three Maltese DanceSport couples participated in the French Open which took place in the beautiful skiing village of Megeve in the French Alps. Joseph & Marianne Bartolo, Malta's top senior couple, Tomislav Hegedus and Brenda-Jane Camilleri Malta's top Junior 2 Latin couple and Kresimir Hegedus and Belinda-Sue Camilleri Malta's top Juvenile Latin couple are the couples who participated in this prestigious European Competitions organised by the International DanceSport Federation who's affiliated member and representative in Malta is the Malta DanceSport Association (M.D.A.) which is the only DanceSport Association recognised on these islands. All three couples are coached by Mr Chris Zammit, M.D.A.'s technical advisor. Mr Zammit is also the only Maltese registered I.D.S.F. judge and formed part of the adjudicating panel in these said competitions.

The Maltese Dancesport couples participated in various competitions and obtained very good results. The senior couples did the semi final and the quarter final of the IDSF Senior 2 and the IDSF Senior 1 competitions. The Junior 2 Latin couple came 4th in Junior 2 Latin and 9th in IDSF Youth Latin, while the Juvenile Latin couple obtained the highest result ending 2nd in Juvenile Latin.

All three couples will now be participating in the Malta DanceSport Championships which will incorporate IDSF International Competitions and the 1st Dancesport Competition for the Small Nations of Europe.

These championships will be held on three days on the 30th November 2007 and the 1st & 2nd December 2007 at the University Sports Hall and will be organised by the Malta DanceSport Association which association is a full member of the IDSF and affiliated to the M.O.C.

The hard working committee of the Malta DanceSport Association led by its President Mr Tony Coleiro augur all the Maltese couples more success in their future competitions.

top